(In a dark alley, the Right Hand meets Chemistry. She is carrying a briefcase.)

Esteban: Do you have it?

Lizz: Everything here. But it was hard to get.

Esteban: Don't give me excuses.

Liz: It's no excuse. The police is chasing our backs.

Esteban: I don't care. "El patron" wants this today.

Liz : Tell your boss that it will cost more next time.

Esteban: Don't let him hear you say that.

Liz: Just a warning.

(They exchange the briefcase for a wad of cash. The Right Hand Man leaves without looking back.)

Scene 3: In the Laboratory

(The Right Hand Man arrives at the laboratory. The Cooks are working.)

Esteban: How's it going?

Alan: We're on the last batch.

Esteban: Let it turn out well.

Sebass: It's not that easy.

Esteban : I don't care.

Alan: We had a problem with the chemicals.

Estebn: Don't tell me that.

Sebasss: There was a small explosion.

Esteban: I don't want any problems.

Alan: We've already fixed it.

ESteban: Good. Let it be ready by tomorrow.

(The Cooks nod. Right Hand Man leaves with a box full of drug packets.)

(Right Hand Man meets Mule in an empty apartment.)

Esteban: This is your job.

David: I don't know if I want to do it.

Esteban: You have no choice.

David: How many capsules?

Esteban: 80.

David: That's too much.

Esteban: We don't pay you to complain.

David: What if something goes wrong?

Esteban: You have no option Points gun*, now stop complaining and do it.

David: Oh no, fine just dont harm my familia i beg you

(Mule looks at the capsules. Sighs and starts swallowing.)
